Jim and Ann DeLong have been married for 38 years. They have two daughters and four grandchildren. They worship at Holy Redeemer Catholic Church in North Bend, Oregon. Ann was raised as a Roman Catholic and Jim joined the church in 1992. For the past 26 years they have been actively involved in local parishes working with religious ed., youth programs, Knights of Columbus and serving on various councils and commissions. They have served on the teams of Cursillo and Life in the Spirit. Both have served as worship leaders for prayer groups.

Jim and Ann have spent the past 18 years studying spiritual warfare and spiritual dream interpretation as well as generational healing. They founded Sheltering Trees Ministries in 2002, ministering to wounded people by re-introducing them to the love of Jesus and the healing power of the Holy Spirit.

They have spoken at various retreats on the Holy Spirit, inner healing, forgiveness and marriage as well as facilitating youth retreats.

Jim is currently the Director of Religious Education and Ann is the Coordinator of Youth Ministry at Holy Redeemer Parish in North Bend, Oregon.
